8. [] GLC) Mr. [] and I met with Jim Oliver, OMB, and Jim Taylor, OPPB, for the purpose of briefing Oliver on the status of our discussions with the Armed Services Committees' staffs on possible changes in the Agency's legislation. Oliver expressed a strong interest in being kept apprised of these negotiations and would be interested in having a copy of the memorandum the Director sent to Dr. Kissinger on this subject. We are checking this with the Director.

Armstrong requested an interview with [] and with the concurrence of General Counsel and the DDO I accompanied [] to the Hill where he was interviewed by Armstrong and Robert Muse (phonetic) for a little under two hours starting at 1900 hours. Mr. [] was cooperative, candid and professional throughout the interview. Armstrong's principal interest was to determine if there was any substance to the allegation that [] knew of [] and he appeared to be completely satisfied that [] knew nothing about this matter. []
